ANTRIM COAST CONTINUES ON DERBY PATH

Antrim Coast will prepare for the Gr.1 South Australian Derby (2500m) after a second-placed finish last Saturday. (Bruno Cannatelli)

Antrim Coast (NZ) (Roc de Cambes) continued his upward Derby trajectory on Saturday, despite having to settle for second in the Listed Galilee Series Final (2400m) at Caulfield.

The Stephen Marsh-trained three-year-old finished second behind

Orchestral (NZ) (Savabeel) in the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m) in March and franked that form with a tough victory in the Gr.3 Alistair Clark Stakes (2040m) over Kiwi filly Quintessa (NZ) (Shamus Award) at The Valley.

Antrim Coast lined-up on Saturday at much shorter odds, but came off second-best to fellow Kiwi-bred Gold Wolf (NZ) (Tivaci), going down by a head.

Marsh was pleased with the gelding's performance but admitted that pressure was placed too soon in a testing 2400m contest.

“I thought he went super, I couldn’t have asked for any better from him,” Marsh said.

“The rider was very apologetic, he just went so far from home and needed to be a lot more patient. We feel he would’ve been very hard to beat, but he was probably travelling so well that he’s gone for him too early.

“But he’s come through it really well, he’s right on track for the South Australian Derby. He’s always been a laid-back horse, takes everything in his stride and loves it. He’s the ultimate racehorse.”

Antrim Coast is now set to represent his owner-breeder, Dick Karreman of The Oaks Stud, in the $1 million Gr.1 South Australian Derby (2500m) at Morphettville on May 4, a race won by New Zealand-breds for the last three years.

Back home, Marsh collected black-type placings at Trentham with Provence (NZ) (Savabeel), who was a close-up second in the Listed Flying Handicap (1400m), and Skyman, who finished third in the Gr.2 Awapuni Gold Cup (2100m).

A daughter of Savabeel, Provence has risen rapidly through the grades since breaking maiden status fresh-up in late-December, picking up three victories before surging into runner-up position behind Bradman (NZ) (Pins) in her black-type debut.

“She ran really well, just probably wanted a better track. Sam (Spratt, jockey) said she couldn’t quite sprint as well as she thought she could’ve, but she’s gone terrific,” Marsh said.

“She definitely needed time, she’s come back a lot better as a four-year-old and has come a long way in one season. It wasn’t that long ago she was a maiden and now she’s running in good black-type races.

“She’ll go to Ellerslie for the Easter Handicap (Gr.3, 1600m) now, where she’s won before, and it’s a beautiful track so it should suit her a lot more.

“She’ll only get better from here, she might be one of those horses you see in good weight-for-age races next season.”

In his first season under Marsh’s care, Mukhadram gelding Skyman has contested five Group races in as many starts, with Saturday’s effort capping off fourth and fifth placings in the Gr.1 Bonecrusher Stakes (2000m) and Gr.1

Thorndon Mile (1600m) respectively.

Marsh was pleased with his front-running performance, leading up to the 200m mark, and fighting on bravely to fill the minor placings behind Nereus (NZ) (Savabeel) and He’s A Doozy (NZ) (Zacinto).

“He also ran really nicely, Sam just said he wants a good firm track,” he said.

“He’ll go out for a spell now and we’ll see a really nice horse next season getting to those better tracks. I’m really happy with how he’s performed this campaign.”

Marsh’s black-type bridesmaid streak was rectified in the undercard at Pukekohe, with victories from both Billy Lincoln (NZ) (Belardo) and Lerado (NZ) (Belardo).

BLANDFORD INVESTMENT IN MARE CONTINUING TO PAY OFF

An investment in an English mare more than 30 years ago is continuing to reward Blandford Lodge, with a homebred descendant successful on the opening day of The Championships at Randwick.

The John O’Shea-trained Good Banter (NZ) (Tavistock) appreciated the step up in distance to claim the Gr.3 Adrian Knox Stakes (2000m) and double her winning tally from a handful of appearances.

“It was fantastic to get a win on that day, it was really good and being by Tavistock out of that family she was always going to be a middle-distance filly,” Blandford Lodge’s Graham Bax said.

“I think she will carry on to be an Oaks type, I don’t know whether she would run in Sydney and maybe they’ll lean more toward the Queensland Oaks (Gr.1, 2200m).”

Good Banter was bred by Blandford and on their behalf sold by Blue Gum Farm at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale for A$280,000 to Louis Le Metayer’s Astute Bloodstock.

“We’ve been involved with the family ever since I bought (fifth dam) Polly Soleil more than 30 years ago off Ron Denby,” Bax said.

By Roi Soleil, Polly Soleil was a half-sister to Avon Valley (Galivanter) who stood at stud for Denby and sired Group One winners Avon Angel, Sir Avon and Valley Of Carome.

Among Polly Soleil’s four winners was Soleil Rouge (NZ) (Red Tempo), who was a two-time Group winner, and more recently they have featured in the pedigrees of the Blandford-bred and sold three-time Group One winners Danzdanzdance (Mastercraftsman) and Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel).

“Soleil Rouge was a good mare to me and (multiple Group winner) Silky Red Boxer is from the family, which we’ve obviously still got offshoots of,” Bax said.

“There’s a whole range of them, it goes on and on and then there’s Katie O’Neill, who is the dam of She Will Be Loved who won the Gr.2 Sir Edward Manifold (1610m).”

The recent Gr.1 Canterbury Stakes (1300m) winner Lady Laguna is another decorated member of the family.

Blandford graduate Ahuriri (NZ) (Almanzor), out of Lucia Valentina’s half-sister Mackenzie Kate, also ran in the Adrian Knox with the Chris Waller-trained filly finishing midfield.

The daughter of Almanzor was sold at Karaka to Waller and Bax and wife Helen-Gaye’s daughter Kylie for $210,000.

“Good Banter and Ahuriri, who Chris rates a bit, were in our paddocks here at home and grew up together,” he said.

Good Banter is a daughter of the Savabeel mare Danza Kuduro, a half-sister to Danzdanzdance and Listed Glasshouse Handicap (1400m) winner Le Gai Soleil (NZ) (Tavistock).

“We raced Le Gai Soleil and she’s back here with a Wootton Bassett colt at foot and is in foal to Proisir,” Bax said.

Bax initially sold Danza Kuduro (NZ) (Savabeel) at the Premier Yearling Sale for A70,000 and she subsequently won three races.

“I kept in touch with one of the guys that bought her off me and he texted me and said we are going to retire the mare,” he said.

“I thought I need her back because Danzdanzdance was going pretty well so I got hold of (agent) Bruce Perry.

“I asked him to get hold of the owners of Danza Kuduro and see if you can buy her for me, which he did.”

The mare’s unraced Ocean Park filly, named See Me Dance, was sold at Karaka for $70,000 in 2023 to Wylie Dalziel and Peter Moody with Danza Kuduro now in foal to Starspangledbanner’s multiple Group One-winning son State Of Rest.

“It’s been a fantastic family and Kylie was well-rewarded this year when she sold a Per Incanto filly out of the family at Karaka for $280,000 to Wexford Stables,” Bax said.

She is a daughter of the unraced Mastercraftsman mare Ouzo, dam of the Group performers Aspen Colorado and Canuhandleajandal.

“We’ve still got plenty of the family around, so hopefully it keeps us all going,” Bax said.

FANTASTIC MONTH FOR TEMPERTON

Royal Flower capped what has been a memorable month for Gail Temperton when she gained black-type at Trentham on Saturday. (Race Images Palmerston North)

Manawatu horsewoman Gail Temperton has experienced a stellar month, which got even better on Saturday when her homebred mare Royal Flower (NZ) (Proisir) attained black-type when placing in the Gr.3 Martin Collins New Zealand Manawatu Breeders' Stakes (2100m) at Trentham.

While the outsider in the field for Saturday's contest, Royal Flower's result didn't come as a surprise to Temperton, who was delighted to earn some black-type with her mare.

"It is always good for a mare, especially as I am a breeder as well. It was very nice – a good run and a good ride," Temperton said.

"It was only a field of nine and I knew the track would suit her. I was concerned about getting flushed out wide on that big bend at Trentham because the barriers were relatively close to the corner. Unfortunately, she had to go a bit hard early and I think that was her undoing. I don't think she would have beaten Apostrophe, but I think she would have been a little closer if she hadn't had to work quite so hard."

Temperton has been pleased with the way Royal Flower has come through the race and is now eyeing the Gr.2 Travis Stakes (2000m) at Te Rapa later this month with her mare.

"She is a box of birds, she has eaten all of her feed. She always comes through her racing very well, she has got a good constitution," Temperton said.

"I have been ringing about for jockeys to see if we go to Te Rapa on the 27th (of April). We will see what evolves between now and then, but that would be my aim."

Bred and raced by Temperton, alongside her partner Stanley Alexander under their Taikorea Thoroughbreds banner, Royal Flower is by New Zealand Champion stallion Proisir and out of their two-win mare Ishidanzin (NZ) (Ishiguru).

"I own her mother, who was a favourite of mine, she was only a two-win mare and her pedigree had got a bit empty. I wanted to keep her mother because I like her so much, so I am very pleased," Temperton said.

"This is Ishidanzin's second foal, her first foal was a Vespa and she was very fast. She won a couple of jumpouts and showed me a lot of promise, and then she had an accident and we had to euthanise her, which was very sad. The mare has been good to me and it is good to formalise it."

Temperton also has a yearling full-brother to Royal Flower she intends on offering at New Zealand Bloodstock's Ready To Run Sale later this year.

"I didn't put him in the yearling sales," Temperton said. "I thought Royal Flower could do this, given more time, and the pedigree didn't have much until Royal Flower gave it a bit of black-type. I will put him in the Ready To Runs now."

Ishidanzin has been served by Little Avondale Stud stallion Time Test, with Temperton wanting to support more local farm's after selling her share in Proisir.

"I sold my Proisir share so I no longer had the use of him. We always go a long distance to the studs from here and I wanted to support people who were closer to us, and I just like Time Test," Temperton said.

"I am interested that Jeff Lynds won with a staying horse (Cheval de Foudre) on Saturday at Trentham. That (staying horses) might be where Time Test is heading."

While rapt with Royal Flower's weekend result, it was just the icing on the cake for Temperton over the last month, with her homebred Mark Twain (NZ) (Shocking) placing in the Gr.2 Auckland Cup (3200m) at Ellerslie before booking his berth in November's Gr.1 Melbourne Cup (3200m) at Flemington when taking out the Listed Roy Higgins (2600m) at the Melbourne track nine days ago.

Temperton said his results have been a tonic for her and Alexander, who can't wait to see what the Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained gelding can do in the spring.

"I was a bit down in the dumps before Mark Twain did his thing. It was a bad time of the year, we had had a drought, and I am getting on in years," she said. "Mark Twain really gave us a huge boost because he has done our other broodmares a great favour. Suddenly my list of raggle-taggle broodmares are not so raggle-taggle after all."

If he takes up his golden ticket in the Melbourne Cup later this year, Mark Twain won't be the first in his family to take his place in the field, with half-brother Pentathlon (NZ) (Pentire) having contested the 2016 edition of the two-mile feature, where he finished ninth behind Almandin (Monsun).

"We bought her (Pinders Prize, dam) from Tom Jamieson and she raced in the CD (Central Districts) three times, Howie Matthews trained her," Temperton said.

"Mr Jamieson was selling up a group of horses and we bought her at the sales. We sent her to Pentire because we are a Rich Hill client, have been for a long time, and she is closely related to Pentathlon, who was a very good staying horse by Pentire. That is how we bred Pentathlon.

"He was a very good horse, a very hard-working, good stayer. He was Group placed several times. The fillies haven't been quite as good as the colts out of that mare, but every colt we have bred from her has sold well and raced well."

Temperton's association with the Melbourne Cup doesn't just lie with the horses she has bred.

"I had an uncle, Eric Temperton, who had high acclaim for winning a Melbourne Cup with Silver Knight in 1971, but it is usually forgotten that another horse of his, Magnifique, ran second the following year," she said. "They were both ridden by Bruce Marsh."

While Temperton has high hopes for Mark Twain in the Melbourne Cup this year, she is also excited about the future with his Vadamos two-year-old half-brother, the last foal out of Pinders Prize.

"We have a two-year-old by Vadamos," Temperton said. "I am told Vadamos' are a little out of favour at the moment and the buyers want to see him do a bit more. I will hang onto him because I think Vadamos can do that. If anyone wants him at the right price between now and the Derby they can talk to me, otherwise I will just plod along and end up there myself with a bit of luck."

Temperton and Alexander are continuing to breed from a handful of broodmares, with a focus on up-and-coming local stallions.

"The old mare Pinders Prize, we are not going to breed from her again, but she has two daughters – Surprising and Nosecondprize," Temperton said. "Nosecondprize is the mother of Samuel Langhorne, who is racing quite well in Australia at the moment for Mick Kent.

"I have got two mares I raced called Miss Benci, who is in-foal to Derryn, and Edwardian Lady, who is in-foal to The Bold One.

"When we sold the share in Proisir, I also wanted to support the local studs, and I wanted to pick out something that was an up-and-coming stallion rather than spend a lot of money on an established one. I think I have done that with The Bold One."

DOUBLE FOR DENNIS AT HOME MEETING

Ascot Park trainer Robert Dennis continued his good run of form at his home track on Sunday, securing a winning double and bookending the eight-race meeting in the process.

"We have won five races in eight days now, so we have been going alright," he said.

Hasstobeyou (NZ) (Darci Brahma) kicked off the meeting in winning fashion when taking out the Editor's Cut Sports Bar Handicap (1200m).

The daughter of Darci Brahma was tardily away but quickly made up her early deficit and found herself in the trail behind pacemaker Papagena (NZ) (Tavistock). Hasstobeyou enjoyed the economical trip, however, Jockey Kendra Bakker had to guide her charge four-wide down the straight to find clear running room where Hasstobeyou quickly found the lead and ran out a 1-1/4 length victor.

"We didn't expect her to be slow out of the barriers, but she is certainly a better chaser than a leader, so that worked out well," Dennis said.

"She looked the winner a long way out. She got out just in time and boomed home over the top of them. It was quite impressive in the end."

Black-type targets are the ultimate aim with the six-year-old, however, Dennis said he will consult with her owners before making any concrete plans.

"She is possibly coming up to the end of her preparation, she may only have a couple of more starts in her," he said.

"We had a go at a Group Three last time and they (owners) would certainly like to get some black-type with her.

"I will just talk with the owners and Hasstobeyou kicked off a pleasing day at Ascot Park on Sunday for local trainer Robert Dennis. (Tayler Strong) come up with a plan."

The stable finished the meeting like they started it, with The Royal Diva (NZ) (The King) taking out the Northern Sports Bar & TAB Handicap (1600m).

"It was really nice to get a win for the family and their stallion, The King," Dennis said "She had a freshen-up after her last run which seemed to do her the world of good. She was quite impressive too. I don't how good the horses are that she beat, but all they can do is win."

Earlier on the card, stablemate The Princie One (NZ) (Savabeel) made her first raceday appearance in nearly a year when runner-up in The Ave Sports Bar Maiden (1200m).

The daughter of Savabeel will now head for a spell and Dennis believes the best is still ahead of her.

"She has been a frustrating horse, she is her own worst enemy at times," he said. "We expected a little bit better yesterday, so she is going to go out now for three or four months, have a really good break and clear her head.

"The family all get better with time and she will get the opportunity for that too."

Meanwhile, Dennis is looking forward to heading to Riccarton on Saturday where Great Time (NZ) (Time Test) will contest the Listed Welcome Stakes (1000m), while stablemate On Song (NZ) (The Bold One) will also trek north to line-up in the rating 65 1200m event.

"They are both last start winners and both were very impressive," Dennis said. "They will be stepping up in company, but I am very confident they can both cope with it."

IMPERATRIZ HEADING HOME FOR R&R

Imperatriz's (I Am Invincible) season is now over but don't expect to hear David Ellis now ramping up a campaign for her to be crowned Australia's Champion Racehorse for the 2023/24 season.

The five-year-old finished fourth in last Saturday's Gr.1 T J Smith Stakes (1200m) at Randwick won by Chain Of Lightning (Fighting Sun), her only unplaced run in a season that netted five Group One wins, which took her career Group One tally to 10.

Imperatriz on Monday flies home to New Zealand, where she will spell before returning to Cranbourne later in the year, and while Ellis thinks being crowned Australian Horse Of The Year would be a fitting accolade, she does not need to title to justify a successful first Australian season for Te Akau.

"I don't get involved in judging her with other stables but we're just so incredible proud," Te Akau principal Ellis said.

"What a great way to start our Cranbourne stable, with a horse that's rated the second best in the world, the best sprinter in the world, and we're just very proud to have been able to buy her."

A $360,000 Magic Millions Gold Cost yearling, the Mark Walker-trained daughter of I Am Invincible is one of the leading contenders for the Horse Of The Year award, with Cups double champion Without A Fight (Teoflo) shaping as her biggest rival.

Two-time Group One winner and All-Star Mile heroine Pride Of Jenni (Pride Of Dubai) gets the chance to further press her claims in this Saturday's $5 million Gr.1 Queen Elizabeth Stakes (2000m) at Randwick.

The T J Smith Stakes was the fourth run in a campaign that realised Group One wins in the Gr.1 Black Caviar Lightning (1000m) and Gr.1 William Reid Stakes (1200m) and a game Gr.1 Newmarket Handicap (1200m) second placing under 58kg.

Imperatriz was undefeated in a spring campaign that started with Group Two success in the Gr.2 McEwen Stakes (1000m) before Group One wins in the Gr.1 Moir Stakes (1000m), Gr.1 Manikato Stakes (1200m) and Gr.1 Champions Sprint (1200m).

The T J Smith Stakes, in which Imperatriz sweated up badly pre-race and was a victim of interference in the run, was her first run in Sydney for the season and Ellis said it did not provide a true guide on whether she can replicate her Melbourne form in Sydney.

For that reason, the $20 million The Everest – a race she bypassed in spring to remain in Victoria – remains an option later in the year.

"It was a very hard race for us to get a guide, she was held up quite a bit, but we were very proud of her.

"We'll have everything open for next season."

Imperatriz is on her way back to New Zealand for a well deserved break. (Trish Dunell)

LUCKY SWEYNESSE BOUNCES BACK WITH WIN IN SPRINT CUP

Lucky Sweynesse (NZ) (Sweynesse) sealed consecutive HK$5.35 million Gr.2 Sprint Cup (1200m) wins on Sunday at Sha Tin for jockey Hugh Bowman and trainer Manfred Man.

Banishing the memories of back-to-back defeats across his last two outings, Lucky Sweynesse returned in emphatic style on rain dampened ground to round up the field in 1m 09.17s as favourite, while Invincible Sage (Thronum) held on for second with Flying Ace (NZ) (Swiss Ace) grabbing third.

“He needs no introduction. He’s Hong Kong’s best sprinter and he has been for some time. He’s an ultra-consistent horse and it’s an honour to ride horses of this calibre. It was just delightful to get the job done today,” Bowman said.

Now the earner of HK$74.27 million, Lucky Sweynesse is a remarkable 16-time winner from 24 starts – including four times at Group One level – and was crowned Hong Kong Champion Sprinter (2022/23) last season.

Lucky Sweynesse settled at the rear as Nervous Witness (Star Witness) fired to an early lead. Turning into the home straight, Bowman sat patiently aboard the five-year-old before pressing the button in the final furlong to run down a tenacious Invincible Sage.

“I was confident in the run because I thought the pace was frantic early and I was able to get in a really smooth, comfortable rhythm throughout. I knew what I had underneath me when I asked him to extend,” Bowman said.

Lucky Sweynesse finished sixth in the HK$13 million Gr.1 Centenary Sprint Cup (1200m) and fifth in the HK$13 million Gr.1 Queen’s Silver Jubilee Cup (1400m) before today.

Lucky Sweynesse was to chase consecutive wins in the HK$22 million Gr.1 Chairman’s Sprint Prize (1200m) on FWD Champions Day (Sunday, 28 April). However stewards have been advised that Lucky Sweynesse was noted to be lame in his left front leg on Monday morning.

Further assessment revealed that Lucky Sweynesse has sustained a fracture to his left fore cannon bone that will require surgical intervention followed by a period of rest and rehabilitation before returning to training and racing. He will be required to pass an official veterinary examination before being entered to race.

Lucky Sweynesse was sold at the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run Sale out of Woburn Farm’s 2020 draft for $90,000 to Joe Barnes’ J & I Bloodstock. The gelding was a six length trial winner at Ellerslie out of Shelley Hale’s Cambridge stable before transferring to Hong Kong.

LATTA HAS HIGH OPINION OF PLATIMUM ATTACK

The rise of promising sprinter Platinum Attack (Santos) continued at Trentham on Saturday, claiming his fourth win on the bounce in The Oaks Stud Premier (1200m).

First appearing on race-day in mid-December, Platinum Attack showed ability on debut, and two starts later, commenced an impressive winning hat-trick that earned the son of Santos second favouritism ($4.80) for the opener at the Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes raceday.

With Johnathan Riddell on board, Platinum Attack flew the gates and settled in the one-one, although giving his rider some stress when over racing with the leisurely tempo up-front set by Ima Brazen One (NZ) (Brazen Beau).

The unique Trentham dog-leg caused several of the less experienced three-year-olds to race greenly upon straightening, but when Platinum Attack found clear air, he wouldn't let up when challenged by Koheroa (I Am Invincible), holding on to extended his winning streak by half a neck.

Riddell has guided Platinum Attacks in five of his six starts, and indicated there is plenty more to come from the lightly-ried gelding.

"He's a horse with a lot of upside, he's still so raw and green at the moment, so what he's doing, he'll just improve on. It was a good strong win," Riddell said.

"I was hoping to be a little bit further back than I was, but he bounced and put himself there. He's done it quite comfortably.

"The stable has had a high opinion of him right the way through, he was a little disappointing at his second start where the track tripped him up, but he hasn't looked back since."

Platinum Attack's Awapuni-based trainer Lisa Latta was thrilled post-race, and indicated there may now be a black-type opportunity on the cards later this month.

"I was absolutely rapt with him, he's a horse that is just getting better and better," she said.

"This was the strongest field he's been up against, and he got a lovely run. They did go quite slowly in front so he got up travelling quite keenly, and to his credit, he dug deep."

"We'll see how he pulls up as he's come a long way and there is the three-year-old 1200m race at Te Rapa later in the month."

Latta was referring to the Gr.2 Inglis Sales Cambridge Breeders' Stakes (1200m), run on the 27th of April at the Waikato venue.

Bred by Aquis Farm, G1G Racing & Breeding and Fly Horse, Platinum Attack was purchased by owners Neville McAlister and Lincoln Farms Bloodstock for $37,000 at the 2021 Magic Millions Gold Coast Weanling Sale.

From six starts, Platinum Attack has recorded four victories and $97,435 in stakes earnings.

RUDYARD GETS DRAMATIC VICTORY AT PUKEKOHE

Progressive galloper Rudyard (NZ) (Charm Spirit) has another victory to add to the win column in his career record after a dramatic finish to the feature race at Pukekohe on Saturday, the Dunstan Horsefeeds 1300 (1300m).

The Tony Pike-prepared four-year-old went to the winning post locked together with the Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained Uderzo (NZ) (Vadamos) with the judge unable to separate the pair, declaring a dead-heat for first with Devastate (NZ) (Vadamos) just a long neck away in third.

However, the protest siren sounded due to Uderzo dictating the running line of both Rudyard and Devastate in the final 200m by boring in on the pair.

The Adjudicative committee viewed all angles of the finish and after considering submissions they upheld the protest providing Rudyard with a solo victory.

Pike was in Sydney with promising three-year-old Witz End (NZ) Savabeel) and although he was busy during the day he managed to watch the action from Pukekohe at the Randwick course.

"It was a bit hectic over here, but I did manage to watch most of our runners on television," Pike said.

"He (Rudyard) seems to have gone to a new level, and although we were dropping him back to 1300m, the pace on suited and he did it well despite copping plenty of interference.

"We needed to win today to get him into the Easter Handicap (Gr.3, 1600m) in a fortnight and stepping back to 1600m with a light weight will suit him down to the ground."

Purchased by Pike for $280,000 from the Windsor Park

Rudyard won his fourth race of the season at Pukekohe on Saturday. (Kenton Wright (Race Images)) draft during Book 1 at Karaka in 2021, Rudyard has now won six of his 21 starts and over $300,000 for a large group of connections.

He is out of outstanding racemare Lady Kipling (NZ) (Savabeel) who won eleven races, with three of those at stakes level, while she was also Group One placed on four separate occasions.

Pike also wasn't disappointed with the performance of Witz End who finished towards the rear in the Gr.3 Carbine Club Stakes (1600m) at Randwick in the hands of James McDonald.

"It has been a good experience for the horse but the minute we got the rain yesterday and this morning our chances went out the window as he is a duffer on wet ground," Pike said.

"What was very heartening was James coming back in and telling me not to be disappointed as he believes the horse has huge potential and just needs good ground and another six months development on him."

BILLY LINCOLN GETS THIRD WIN IN SUCCESSION

An impressive performance in Saturday's Stella Artois (1600m) at Pukekohe capped a breakthrough autumn for Billy Lincoln (NZ) (Belardo), who has strung together three successive victories over the last five weeks.

Billy Lincoln made a relatively quiet start to his career, finishing outside the placings in all of his first three starts between November and January. The three-year-old Belardo gelding hinted at better things with a second placing at Taupo on February 14, chasing home the subsequent stakes performer Irish Legacy (I Am Invincible), and he has not looked back since then.

The Stephen Marsh-trained Billy Lincoln cleared maiden ranks by two lengths at Hastings on February 28, then defeated a talented field on Oaks Day at Trentham on March 16.

Saturday's opening race at Pukekohe presented another new challenge with a small field of highly capable three-year-olds, including the stakes-performed Solidify (NZ) (Redwood), but Billy Lincoln was up to the task.

Billy Lincoln led for the first 400m of the race, but apprentice jockey Ngakau Hailey was unfazed when Cintivee (NZ) (Tivaci) and King Of The North (NZ) (Jon Snow) slid past him approaching the turn out of the back straight. Billy Lincoln then settled in third place until Hailey spotted a narrow opening on the inside of Cintivee in the straight.

Hailey drove Billy Lincoln through that tight gap, striding past Cintivee and taking command. Kealoha (The Autumn Sun) came at him with a strong late run, but Billy Lincoln held her out by a long head.

Billy Lincoln's seven-start career has now produced three wins, a second and $90,150 in stakes.

"He's come a long way in a short time this autumn," Marsh said. "He's done a really good job and is a pretty promising sort of three-year-old. Putting together three wins on the bounce is no mean feat.

"He seemed to relax nicely stepping up to 1600m today. He had to come through quite a tight gap in the straight, so it was good to see him negotiate that and run so strongly to the line.

"We probably won't do a great deal more with him in this preparation. He's had a fair few runs now, and he needs reasonably good ground. He could have one more if he comes through this one well and the tracks stay dry, but otherwise he can go out to the paddock, and we'll save him for his four-year-old season."

Billy Lincoln is part-owned by his breeders Lincoln Farms Bloodstock, who remarkably took out the opening race at both New Zealand venues on Saturday. Another of their emerging three-year-olds, Platinum Attack (Santos), extended his own winning sequence to four in Trentham's The Oaks Stud Premier (1200m).

ACE OF DIAMONDS IMPRESSIONING WIN AT KRANJI

After nine months of riding at his first overseas venture in Singapore, young Brazilian jockey Bruno Queiroz landed his first feature win aboard Ace Of Diamonds (NZ) (Swiss Ace) in the S$110,000 Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (1200m) on Saturday.

After being caught four wide with no cover Ace Of Diamonds had plenty of work to do but when Queiroz levelled up with the leading pack at the 350m, he looked to be doing it easy before hitting the afterburners at the 300m to put the race beyond doubt in a matter of strides.

Although he wandered about slightly in the last furlong, Ace Of Diamonds still had them all covered a long way from home, eventually winning by a length from the Donna Logan-trained Artillery, who ran on strongly in second.

The winning time was 1 min 9.57secs for the 1200m on the Short Course. Ace Of Diamonds' fourth win from nine starts took his prizemoney to over S$200,000 for owner Leonardo Javier.

Queiroz was overjoyed with his first feature win in Singapore and reckoned Ace Of Diamonds will improve further in the Singapore Three-Year-Old Classic (1400m) and the Singapore Guineas (1600m), which will be run on 27 April and 18 May respectively.

"I'm very happy as I didn't have a big win in Singapore and today was perfect," said the humble hoop, whose spoken English has improved from when he first stepped foot in Singapore.

"The horse was very well. A good job by Ricardo and the stable.

"He was alone at the last 200m and he watched (looked around), so I picked up the whip and he picked up and finished well.

"I think the longer distance (races) will be better for him."

Meanwhile, Le Grange, who has been a big supporter of Queiroz's, was confident before the race and praised Ace Of Diamonds for overcoming the wide gate and tough run to win.

"He's (Ace Of Diamond) probably as good as I thought he is," said Le Grange after the race.

"He did it a bit tough today. The draw was not ideal and racing wide on the 'C' Course made it really tough.

"I brought him back from the 1400m (in a Class 3 race at his last start), so I had to freshen him up and put some speed into his legs.

"So, I thought he would be a bit strong today, which he was.

I think both the 3YO Classic and Guineas will be well within his reach.

"We will just keep training him now as per normal, keep him safe and out of harm's way.

"To Sandy (Leonardo) and Karen (Javier), he's a really smart horse and they deserved it. They are great patrons of the game. I'm just very happy."

Other New Zealand bred winners in Singapore on Saturday included Sacred Buddy (NZ) (Sacred Falls) & Lim's Smythe (NZ) (Saxon Warrior).
