FAMILY INVESTMENT STILL PAYING OFF

Burgie winning the Gr.3 South Island Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1600m) at Riccarton on Saturday. (Race Images South)

Brian Anderton's association with Burgie's (NZ) (Ghibellines) family goes back decades and it's one that continues to deliver stakes successes.

With son and training partner Shane, the New Zealand Hall of Famer celebrated another satisfying victory with the Ghibellines mare when she won the Gr.3 South Island Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1600m) at Riccarton on Saturday in the hands of Corey Campbell.

It also signalled a deserved change of fortune for Burgie, who lost her rider at barrier rise in the Gr.3 White Robe Lodge WFA (1600m) before she was narrowly denied at Gore.

"It's been pretty frustrating with her, but we got the prize and it was a good ride by Corey," Anderton said.

"Shane puts a hell of a lot of work into the training now, I'm more of an observer, so I'm thrilled for him.

"Burgie's a great autumn mare as she comes in season a lot during the summer and can be quite difficult, but at this time of the year she's a different horse altogether.

"Unfortunately, there's not a lot more coming up for her so we'll probably look at the weight-for-age race at Christchurch (Gr.3 Canterbury Gold Cup, 2000m)."

Anderton bred Burgie at the family's White Robe Lodge operation with his late wife Lorraine and races her with long-standing clients BJ's Southern Syndicate.

"That all goes back to a horse called Master Mellay, that's when I first started training for that syndicate and they've had a lot of nice horses along the way," he said.

Master Mellay (NZ) (Mellay) entered Anderton's stable half a decade ago as a four-year-old and was a winner on the flat and over hurdles.

"It's the longest I've ever trained for a syndicate, it was yonks ago," he said.

Anderton's entry into the Burgie family began in 1992 at a New Zealand Bloodstock Sale in the South Island.

"One of my best mates Dennis Roughan and Jack Mears, who were clients of mine years and years ago, said they wouldn't mind buying a broodmare," he said.

"Two mares sold after the sale, one was the Mellay mare Bright Girl who I bought for them.

"Then Josie came up and she was by Ribotlight, who I loved, out of Bright Girl and I bought her to breed out of and have had a lot of luck."

Dam of the Gr.3 Stewards' Handicap winner Renee (NZ) (Cautious Style), Josie (NZ) was successful on four occasions and is the granddam of the Gallant Guru mare Norah (NZ).

She won six races and is the mother of Burgie, who has now added the Breeders' Stakes to her previous black type victory in the Listed Warstep Stakes (2000m).

Norah also has a four-year-old sister to Burgie named Mabel, who has placed in a brief career.

"She has got the ability but isn't strong enough, so we decided to leave her until next autumn and give her a good, long break," Anderton said.

The mare also has a juvenile colt by Jon Snow, a Ghibellines yearling and is in foal to associate White Robe sire Ancient Spirit.

LADY TELENA AFTER SOUTHERN RICHES

Kenny Moore resisted the urge to chase the $650,000 Summer Series Bonus with his Group One performer Lady Telena (Vespa) in favour of targeting southern riches, and his decision is looking to have paid off.

Following Lady Telena's placing in the Gr.1 Thorndon Mile (1600m) at Trentham in January and seventh-placed run in the Gr.1 Herbie Dyle Stakes (2000m) at Te Rapa in February, the daughter of Vespa was in contention for the $100,000 and $50,000 bonuses for the second and third series placegetters, but trainer and part-owner Moore elected to resist heading north once more to tackle the final leg of the series, the Gr.1 Bonecrusher New Zealand Stakes (2000m) at Ellerslie earlier this month.

"She was in the hunt, but we didn't go to the Bonecrusher because at the time I thought Legarto (NZ) (Proisir) was unbeatable, but as it happened she was," Moore said.

"We had to get back here because we had to have two starts in the South Island to be eligible for that $350,000 race (Southern Alps Challenge), so she couldn't have gone to the Bonecrusher and gone for that, so I chose to go for the South Island one instead.

"It is good to have a home too, I was getting sick of travelling and I like having my babies with me."

Lady Telena showed she is more than up to the task of tackling next month's Southern Alps Challenge (1600m) when finishing runner-up behind Burgie in the Gr.3 South Island Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1600m) at Riccarton on Saturday.

"It was a brilliant finish with amazing sectionals, it was just a shame we couldn't be a tad closer on the turn, but that is racing," Moore said.

"It is a Group Three, as well as a Group One placing now, so that is great.

"She is just such a good girl, she is that little horse that could, and she does."

Moore has been pleased with the way she has come through Saturday's run and can't wait to try and snare the lion's share of the big prizemoney up for grabs in the last innovation race of the season.

"She is jumping out of her skin. I couldn't be happier with her," he said.

"She is going to go forward for the Southern Alps, it is a nice chance for us little chaps to have a chance at something a little bit bigger without the big boys being in the picture."

Lady Telena has really come of age this year and Moore said he is pleasantly surprised by the success she has been having in the top echelon of racing in New Zealand.

"In the first month of training her I thought she had the ability to win a race or two, but she kept improving," he said. "She is nothing to look at, she is quite a plain, ordinary horse and you wouldn't think she is anything special, but whatever we throw at her, she just steps up to the mark and takes it on."

Meanwhile, Moore is looking forward to kicking off the winter campaigns of a couple of his team next week.

"We have got the winter team coming along now," he said. "Steve Austin and Franni Caccini will kick-off at Ashburton next week."

TE AKAU FAMILY KEEP PRODUCING

Nucleonic (NZ) (Burgundy) is proving to be a broodmare gem for Te Akau Racing principal David Ellis, who shares in the ownership of the mare with Westonlea Bloodstock's David and Matthew Peacocke.

The family have been put up in lights by the recent deeds of her daughter Qali Al Farrasha (NZ) (Almanzor), with the filly finishing runner-up in the Gr.3 Sunline Vase (2100m) at Ellerslie earlier this month before running third in the Gr.1 New Zealand Oaks (2400m) at Trentham.

While there is plenty of excitement surrounding the three-year-old filly, her year younger full-brother Nucleozor (NZ) is showing he has inherited the family talent when extending his undefeated streak to two at Riccarton on Saturday when taking out the Entain – NZB Insurance Pearl Series Race (1000m) at Riccarton on Saturday by 3-1/4 lengths.

"It was another really good win by Nucleozor," said Mark Walker, who trains in partnership with Sam Bergerson. "He's a horse with a lot of scope and size about him and obviously has plenty of natural ability.

"We expect he'll only get better with time and age, so whatever he's doing now is just a bonus. He has the makings of a lovely three-year-old."

Nucleozor will now likely head to the Listed Welcome Stakes (1000m) at Riccarton next month ahead of the Listed Champagne Stakes (1200m) in May.

The family is entrenched at Te Akau Stud, with Ellis having raced their granddam Mexican Rose (NZ) (Volksraad), who was a Champion 2YO & 3YO in Singapore, after impressing when winning two of her three starts in New Zealand.

"Greg Tomlinson (Nearco Stud) and I bought Mexican Rose," Ellis said. "We sold two O'Reilly colts out of her for a good return and her weanling topped the sale in 2016.

"She was pretty smart, Nucleonic, and this is her third foal, so it's great to get another promising horse like this early in her breeding career.

"The Peacocke family has had a lot of success with Te Akau, racing Avantage (Fastnet Rock) among others, and have a long family involvement in racing.

"Nucleozor is a really professional young horse with plenty of ability, and Hunter (Durrant, Riccarton Stable Foreman) and our team of staff at Riccarton are doing a great job with him and all the horse there."

Later on the card, Beau Brummell (NZ) (Embellish) secured a stable double when taking out the Selwyn District Council TAB Southern Alps Qualifier (1600m).

"It was very good win and positive ride by Ashvin (Goindasamy)," Walker said. "He's really starting to come of age.

"He's maturing nicely with age, like other three-year-olds we've got in the stable by Embellish, and they look like they're going to continue improving."

Bred by David Ellis and Karyn Fenton-Ellis, Beau Brummell is shared by the couple in ownership with Waikato Thoroughbred Racing board of directors Glenn Holmes and his wife Cathie Holmes.

Ellis purchased his sire Embellish as a yearling at Karaka, and the Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) winner stands at Cambridge Stud, with his oldest progeny being three-year-olds. Held in high regard as a racehorse and future stallion by Ellis, his belief has been vindicated as the stable leads way with six individual winners by the young sire.

"He's made a great start to his stallion career with winners in New Zealand and Australia, and this bloke (Beau Brummell) joins some really nice winners we've had by him in the stable," Ellis said.

"He ran a good race for fourth in Southland Guineas after only winning his Maiden the week beforehand, and he displayed really good attributes to win.

"Talisker recorded a hat-trick of wins before finishing second in the 2000 Guineas (Gr. 1, 1600m) and What You Wish For and Glitzy Glory are another couple of promising winners by Embellish that we've got in the stable.

"His oldest are only three-year-olds and I think he's doing a great job at stud."

RUBY ROCKS SCORES CUPS DOUBLE

Ruby Rocks (NZ) (Burgundy) made it two home cup wins in as many months at Tauherenikau on Sunday when taking out the Trust House Enhancing Our Community Masterton Cup (2050m).

The daughter of Burgundy was victorious over the same track and distance on Waitangi Day last month when taking out the Wairarapa Cup, and owner-breeder-trainer Roger Allen was confident of another bold showing on the Soft5 footing.

Ruby Rocks jumped well and was sent straight to the front by jockey Jonathan Riddell where they were able to dictate terms. The Bill Thurlow-trained Field Of Gold (Starspangledbanner) pressed forward to challenge Ruby Rocks around the final turn, heading his rival with 200m to go, however, Ruby Rocks' tenacity proved too strong and she fought back to regain her lead and hold out race favourite Titled (Exceed And Excel) to win by a length.

Opaki-based Allen said he was pleased to get his mare's name etched in another local Cup.

"She got the Wairarapa and Masterton Cup double, which was great. It was very pleasing to get that win," he said.

"She was headed and then she just showed so much determination, she fought back. She is a gutsy mare and just doesn't give up, she loves it.

"She likes that track too and she has finally got firm tracks. All last summer it was wet, and we didn't have any firm tracks, and now we have got them and she is thriving."

Out of two-win Black Minnaloushe mare Rapidpower, Ruby Rocks has now won eight of her 43 career starts and more than $150,000 in prizemoney, and Allen said attaining black-type is now the primary objective with his mare.

"I am thinking of stopping breeding and buying yearlings, so you don't have as long to wait, so getting some black-type (with Ruby Rocks before she is offered for sale as a broodmare) is important," Allen said.

"We are looking at going to the Manawatu Breeders' (Gr.3, 2100m) at Trentham (on Saturday week) where she will be against mares and fillies, and not big geldings."

With winter fast approaching and Ruby Rocks liking for firm tracks, Allen said she may only have a couple of more starts before she heads to the spelling paddock, but he is keen to press on with his charge for as long as possible.

"She is just thriving at the moment, she is loving it," he said. "If we have still got firm tracks then we will keep going, but as soon as it gets wet she can get out for the winter."

STAKES TARGETS AHEAD FOR PARAGON

Stakes assignments are in the offing for promising three-year-old Paragon (NZ) (Embellish) following his convincing win in the Life Flight Save Time Saves Lives (1300m) at Tauherenikau on Sunday.

Bred by Cambridge Stud principals Brendan and Jo Lindsay, the couple race the son of Embellish with Alan and Kerry Harper, who have enjoyed early success with the Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained youngster in just a handful of starts.

He had particularly shown promise as a two-year-old when finishing runner-up in both of his juvenile starts, including the Listed Futurity Stakes (1400m) at Pukekohe last May. He was spelled following a disappointing two-start spring preparation, and his connections were pleased to see him bounce back first-up on Sunday.

Paragon was fair away and was sent forward to take up the pace-making role by jockey Jonathan Riddell. The pair didn't relinquish their advantage and Paragon ran out a two-length victor over Tivaci's Affair (NZ) (Tivaci), with Rosalita (NZ) (Tivaci) a further short neck back in third.

"He has shown plenty of promise, so it is good to get a maiden win out of the way," Cambridge Stud's head of sales and nominations Scott Calder said.

"It was a really nice win, and it was nice to see him do it so convincingly.

"He was a stakes performer as a two-year-old, so he has always shown plenty, particularly considering he is a mid-November foal.

"The way he is bred, and being by Embellish, we always hoped he was going to get better at three, so it was nice to see him get a win on the board.

"We are getting later in the season, but I am sure Rob and Roger will hatch a plan, he is a horse we think can go on with it from here."

Paragon descends from Cambridge Stud royalty, with his second-dam being Group One winner Tristalove (NZ) (Sir Tristram), who has produced Group One winner Viking Ruler (Danehill) and Group One performers Lovetrissa (Rock Of Gibraltar), Kempinsky (Danehill), and Diamond Like (Danehill).

Paragon's dam Love Diamonds (Danehill) has also been a successful producer, leaving the likes of Group Two winner and New Zealand Bloodstock Filly of her Year Queen Of Diamonds (NZ) (Savabeel), and Group Three performer Lovetessa (NZ) (O'Reilly). – LOVERACING.NZ News Desk

MR BRIGHTSIDE READY FOR AUSTRALIAN CUP

Lindsay Park trainers Ben, Will and J D Hayes cannot ask much more of Mr Brightside (NZ) (Bullbars). The gelding is the winner of 16 races and almost A$13 million in prize money and has put the Lindsay Park stable and their own names out in the racing world as trainers of Group One winners.

But Ben Hayes said there was one glaring omission from Mr Brightside's CV, a Group One victory at 2000 metres.

Hayes hopes that will be rectified on Saturday in the Gr.1 Australian Cup (2000m) at Flemington.

Mr Brightside was denied a win in the Gr.1 Cox Plate (2040m) at Moonee Valley last spring, a defeat that still grates Hayes.

"He's probably a Cox Plate winner if that race was 2000, instead of 2040 metres," Hayes said.

"So, if we could tick off a Group One at 2000 metres, I would be very happy."

Hayes said Mr Brightside had recovered well from his second-place finish to Pride Of Jenni (Pride Of Dubai) in the All-Star Mile (1600m) at Caulfield on March 16.

The gelding staged a big performance that day, coming from back in the field to run the Ciaran Maher-trained mare to two lengths.

Craig Williams was criticised in some circles for his ride, but the jockey retains the ride in the Australian Cup as they bid to square the ledger with Pride Of Jenni.

The mare holds a two-one advantage over Mr Brightside after scoring in the Gr.1 Champions Mile (1600m) at Flemington last spring while Mr Brightside took the honours in the Gr.1 Orr Stakes (1400m) at Caulfield last month.

Mr Brightside returned to Lindsay Park's property at Euroa after his All-Star Mile defeat and is in perfect health.

"With the ride Craig gave him, he's come through it fantastic," Hayes said.

"You could not be happier with how he came through the race going towards the Australian Cup.

"It was the perfect run.

"We took him back to the farm. He loves going out into the paddock, especially at this time of year.

"He's ready to run well."

MYSTIC PARK WINS TOUGH TEST AT RICCARTON

Michael and Matthew Pitman will consider options on both sides of the Tasman with their rising stable star Mystic Park (NZ) (Ocean Park), who faced his toughest test to date at Riccarton on Saturday and passed with flying colours.

The local four-year-old stepped into open class for the first time in the Johnny Fresh Darfield & Yaldhurst Open Sprint (1400m), and he was sent out as a red-hot $1.50 favourite after showing real X-factor in his rapid rise through the grades this season.

Mystic Park kicked off his campaign with a four-length win in Rating 65 company on New Zealand 2000 Guineas Day in November, then may have struggled with the quick back-up when unplaced on New Zealand Cup Day a week later.

The Ocean Park gelding returned to his winning groove in his next appearance at Timaru on December 28, followed by a close second to Madam Dubai (Pride Of Dubai) after a three-wide run on January 27.

Mystic Park carried 60kg to a stunning four-length romp in a 1400m Rating 75 on February 10, prompting the Pitmans to raise the bar again for Saturday's open handicap over the same course and distance. Once again, Mystic Park was well and truly up to the task.

Caught three wide in the early stages of the race, jockey Tina Comignaghi decided to slide forward and take up a position on the outside of the front-running Tradition (NZ) (Proisir).

Mystic Park travelled well up to the turn and hit the lead at the top of the straight, but he faced challenges on both flanks as horses lined up six-wide across the track. Mystic Park found another gear and edged ahead, beating the well-performed Perfect Scenario (NZ) (Iffraaj) by three-quarters of a length and stopping the clock at a quick 1:21.69.

Mystic Park has now had nine starts for five wins, three placings and $120,920 in stakes, having been bought by the Pitman stable for $40,000 as a yearling at Karaka in 2021.

His victory in the TAB Southern Alps Golden Ticket (1400m) two starts ago secured him a spot in the field for the inaugural $350,000 TAB Southern Alps Challenge (1600m) on April 13, although Michael Pitman warned that he may not be a certain starter in that lucrative innovation race restricted to South Island-based stables.

"You'd say that it's the obvious race to target, but it is going to depend on how much weight he gets," he said. "We won't go there just for the sake of it if it's not the right thing to do for the horse. It's worth $350,000, but there's plenty of races worth that and much more in Australia, and I have no doubt he could go over there and be competitive. There are million-dollar races in Brisbane that he could run in during their winter carnival. So, we'll wait and see where his rating ends up and then make a plan.

"He's a fantastic horse, and not only because he's got such exciting ability, but he's also just a lovely horse to do anything with. We're thrilled to have him.

"Before he even raced I told the owners I thought he was a Group horse and potentially a Group One horse. There's obviously quite a few steps that a horse has to take to get to that level, but he's managed every step so far and done it easily.

"He's won five out of nine now and has it all in front of him. This was only his second start beyond 1200m today, he's won both times, and he's bred to go over further – he's out of a Dubawi mare, which makes him pretty rare in New Zealand. I think his owners have a lot to look forward to with him."

COMPLICATE GETS DESERVED WIN AT TAURANGA

Complicate with his strapper after scoring a tough win in Saturday's Snow Williams Bayleys Country (1600m) at Tauranga. (Kenton Wright (Race Images))

After spending most of the afternoon tossing up whether or not to scratch Complicate (NZ) (Complacent) from Saturday's Snow Williams Bayleys Country (1600m) at Tauranga, Matamata trainer Wayne Hillis decided to roll the dice and was richly rewarded.

The Tauranga track was rated Soft5 at the beginning of Saturday's eight-race card, but an afternoon of miserable weather sent it all the way down to Heavy10 by the time

Complicate headed to the start for the final race of the day.

Hillis admitted that he was far from confident that Complicate would handle the testing conditions, but he decided to take the plunge after half a dozen late scratchings reduced the $40,000 race to a field of just six.

"I was pretty worried about the track," Hillis said. "I thought long and hard about scratching her, but the longer I waited, the more the field fell away with all of those other scratchings coming out. In the end, I'm glad we stayed in.

"She'd had only one previous run on a heavy track in her career, which was at Hastings earlier this year (a sixth placing over 2100m on January 6). Normally she's quick out of the gates and takes up a handy position, but she missed the jump that day and dropped right out the back before making up a bit of ground at the end. So it was a run that was quite hard to get a line on, but it made me think that maybe she might get through rain-affected ground okay."

Saturday's performance certainly proved that point. Complicate was ridden by Tayla Mitchell and broke sharply from the starting gates, then took up a position on the outside of the front-running He's Classic (NZ) (Rageese).

Mitchell pushed the button at the home turn and Complicate took command, clearing out down the straight to win by three lengths over He's Classic and Rosetown Princess (NZ) (Redwood).

"It was good to see her get that win, she deserved it after having a fair bit of bad luck through this campaign," Hillis said.

"We aren't thinking too far ahead for now, it was just a matter of going one race at a time and hoping to turn her luck around a little bit and get a result. It's great that we've done that."

Complicate has now had 16 starts for two wins, six placings and $63,640 in stakes.

MARSH AND PETAGNA FOLLOWING A FAMILIAR PATH

Stephen Marsh is trekking a familiar path with owner Lib Petagna in search of South Island black-type success for promising filly Nikaia (NZ) (Ardrossan), a plan that commenced in ideal fashion on Saturday at Riccarton Park.

Cambridge-based Marsh sent Petagna's talented filly Luella Cristina (Snitzel) to his Riccarton satellite barn for the Autumn last season, after her third-place finish in the Gr.1 Levin Classic (1600m). The regally-bred daughter of Snitzel went on to finish runner-up in both the Listed NZB Airfreight Stakes (1600m) and Listed NZB Warstep Stakes (2000m), earning her the 2022-23 Southern Filly Of The Year crown.

Nikaia, a three-year-old daughter of Ardrossan, recorded her maiden victory at Otaki in December after knocking on the door in previous starts, however faced a tough run in her first major test when finishing at the tail of the field in the Levin Classic.

Marsh subsequently sent the filly for a freshen-up with a light trial at Cambridge in late February preceding a trip south to join the in-form trainer's South Island contingent, with her first start coming in a competitive Peterson's Jewellers Ladies Bracelet Three-Year-Old (1400m) on Saturday.

In the hands of Northern hoop Tegan Newman, Nikaia found a comfortable position just better than midfield, as last-start winner Contemplation Bay (NZ) (Rageese) set a strong tempo at the top. The filly travelled strongly into contention but needed every metre of the straight to run down the gallant leader, Nikaia prevailing by a nose to kick off her southern stakes quest in style.

Marsh was thrilled with the filly's performance, indicating her next start would be back at Riccarton Park in three weeks' time, in the Listed NZB Insurance Stakes (1600m).

"I thought she was really good, she hasn't raced for a long time, and had just the one quiet trial after a long trip down there," he said.

"She's settled really well in Christchurch, we've just got a small stable with twelve boxes, it a nice, quiet environment for her.

"She'd probably just come to the end of her campaign in the Levin Classic, after running some really solid races beforehand, so we expected her to be very competitive.

"She'll run in the fillies' mile in three weeks' time, and she'll only improve further from today onto her next assignments. We're very happy going forward, it would be great to get some black-type with her."

Out of the unraced mare Femme Britannia (Encosta de Lago), Nikaia is a half-sister to Group Three-winner Choice (NZ) (Mastercraftsman).

Nikaia was bred by the Dewar Partnership, consisting of owners Petagna, bloodstock agent Bruce Perry and wife Anna, David and Nicki Wilson, Max Brown, and Tony Joyce. The lightly-tried filly has now recorded two victories and a minor placing from five race-day starts, accumulating $35,985 in stakes.

LIM'S KOSCIUSZKO MAKES WINNING RETURN

Trelawney Stud bred Singapore Horse of the Year Lim's Kosciuszko (Kermadec) overcame a troubled preparation to get his 18th career win in the S$100,000 Kranji Stakes A race (1200m) on Saturday.

Granted it was a drop in class for him after his hit-and-run assignment in the Gr.1 Hong Kong Mile (1600m) at Sha Tin racecourse last December, an overstay with quarantine issues after his second overseas mission had serious repercussions for his upcoming races.

Sent out as the expected hot favourite, Lim's Kosciuszko (Marc Lerner) jumped well from barrier two before being eased out of the early speed battle to find a perfect sit three-back with cover.

Taking no chances in what looked more like a barrier trial for the champion horse than a race, Lerner was happy to move into contention five wide on the bend, while outsider Kharisma sat even wider. Renzo made his move in the straight to make it a virtual line of six at the 275m.

Meanwhile, although Lim's Kosciuszko was given a crack or two to keep his mind on the job at the furlong post, he looked the winner a long way from home.

Given it was well-documented that he was using this race as a stepping stone to bigger races in the upcoming months, his one-and-a-half length win over a brave Kharisma was outstanding.

The winning time was a solid 1 min 10.87secs for the 1200m on the Polytrack. With that 18th win the prizemoney won by the six-year-old son of Kermadec has ballooned to over S$2.5 million for the Lim's Stable.

Winning trainer Daniel Meagher was ecstatic to see Lim's Kosciuszko back winning but more importantly, was just happy his star galloper got the run under his belt after his recent troubles.

"That was terrific after what he had been through," said the Australian conditioner.

"I don't need to go on about that quarantine issues after Hong Kong, but he (Lim's Kosciuszko) weighed in at 485kgs today and that's the heaviest (weight) he has ever raced at.

"So we knew he wasn't near his best fitness-wise and as I said before the race; win, lose or draw, we just wanted him to get through the race okay as he will benefit from the run regardless.

"Marc rode him perfectly. I didn't give him any instructions except to stay out of the deep sand (on the inside) and he (Lerner) was never going to hurt him.

"A couple of smacks (whips) kept his mind on the job and he won so well.

"He had a blow after and we expected that, but I just left the stables and he looked to have come through in really good shape. Hopefully he's the same tomorrow.

"He's tough."

Lerner was also in awe of what Lim's Kosciuszko was able to do after a limited preparation.

"To do what he (Lim's Kosciuszko) did today was incredible," said Lerner, who won back-to-back for Meagher in the $50,000 Class 4 Division 1 race (1100m) on Grand Avante.

"The quarantine took so much out of him and he only started to get back to himself two or three weeks ago. People don't know that.

"So Daniel and I knew he needed this run and would improve.

"But as soon as I was legged up on him, I knew he was on his game. He knew he was at the races.

"He jumped well and settled beautifully under me. To be honest, he put himself into the race and I only had to tell him when to go.

"Again, we didn't care if he won or lost but he's the champ(ion) and he showed why today.

"The work behind the scenes to get him here today was important too. The farriers did a great job, so did everyone in the stable.

"Maybe (Lim's Kosciuszko) staying in Singapore was a blessing because people get to watch him in some big races. They love him and he will keep the place (Kranji) vibrant to the end."

Bred by Brent and Cherry Taylor's Trelawney Stud, Lim's Kosciuszko was passed in at the New Zealand Bloodstock Sales and then sold privately after winning his first and only trial in New Zealand when under the care of Clayton Chipperfield.

SABAH ACE RETURNS TO THE WINNERS CIRCLE

Sabah Ace (NZ) (Swiss Ace) secured his spot in the lucrative 4yo series with his first win in nine months in the S$50,000 Class 4 1400m race under a gun ride by jockey Vlad Duric.

After jumping from gate one, Sabah Ace stalked the speed and sailed past in the straight to win easily by three-and-a-quarter lengths on the line.

Previously a four-time winner in races over 1100m and 1200m, Sabah Ace has now won five races in 12 starts and amassed closed to S$170,000 for connections.

The Gerry Harvey bred son of Swiss Ace was sold by Westbury Stud at the 2021 Ready To Run Sale for $50,000 to trainer David Kok.

It was good news for connections and fans as Sabah Ace had not won since his last win nine months ago in a Class 3 race (1200m), but some Kranji racegoers were probably more concerned with news of his winning partner Duric returning to Australia on Sunday.

It was definitely not a case of bidding Kranji farewell for good but the four-time Singapore champion jockey, who hit his 700th milestone win atop Pacific Spirit for Kok last Sunday, will be commuting between Singapore and Brisbane for the rest of Kranji's racing season.

"Things are still being worked out, but I'll be based in Brisbane. I'll ride there on Saturdays but I'll also fly back for some of the Sunday meetings here."

Duric and Kok, who also became a trainer in his own rights in 2009, have combined for several wins in the past 15 years and Sabah Ace would unlikely be their last fruitful partnership in the remaining six months before Singapore racing draws the curtain.

Speaking about Sabah Ace, Duric reckoned the longer trip and fast pace suited the Royal Sabah Turf Club Stable-owned gelding.

"He's better going up to the 1400m. It was perfect for us when the pair went fast in front," he said.

Kok echoed the same sentiments and now that Sabah Ace has proved himself with a win on the 1400m, the Singaporean handler was even more assured of running him in the Silver Bowl (1400m) on 9 June and the Stewards' Cup (1600m) on 30 June at his four-year-old campaign.

"They went crazy in front and 1400m suited him better," said Kok.

"We aim for the 4YO races, but the (Singapore) Derby (1800) would still depend on how he runs."

Of the three feature races opened only to four-year-olds, Singapore Derby will be run three weeks after the Stewards' Cup.

LUMINARY / 2024

Newgate Farm's Capitalist: A Shining Star in Thoroughbred Excellence Supporting Spinal Cord Injury Research

Step into the spotlight and join us for an unforgettable evening of elegance, philanthropy, and celebration at The CatWalk Trust's LUMINARY event!

Ladies, it's time to dust off your most dazzling dresses, and gentlemen, don your sharpest suits - because on Saturday, June 22, we're rolling out the red carpet at the newly refurbished Newmarket Room at Ellerslie Racecourse, Auckland, New Zealand.

Tickets to this magical soir e are available now, offering you the chance to immerse yourself in an evening of glamour and giving. With a lineup of exciting events, including live entertainment, gourmet dining, and much more, LUMINARY promises a night to remember.

But that's not all! A shining star of the evening is our highly anticipated charity auction, where generosity knows no bounds. Thanks to the incredible support of our community, CatWalk has raised invaluable funds year after year to support cutting-edge research to cure spinal cord injury.

This year, we're thrilled to welcome Newgate Farm to the live auction stage! Led by the visionary Henry Field, Newgate Farm stands as a beacon of excellence in the thoroughbred industry. With bold stallion selections and a commitment to top-tier care, they've risen to become one of Australasia's leading thoroughbred farms in just 14 short years.

Among their stellar lineup stands Capitalist, the Champion Australian Two-Year-Old of 2015/16, whose lightning-fast speed and impact on the track are matched only by his influence in the breeding shed. Capitalist's progeny have earned nearly $8 million this season alone, making him a coveted asset for breeders worldwide.

Thanks to Newgate's generous contribution, we're thrilled to announce that a service fee to Capitalist will be up for grabs at our LUMINARY event. Don't miss your chance to bid on this exclusive opportunity to support world-class spinal cord injury research!

For more information and to secure your tickets to LUMINARY, visit www.catwalk.org.nz. Can't attend in person? Phone bids will be accepted - simply contact Chris@catwalk.org.nz to register your interest and learn more.

Join us as we highlight spinal cord injury research progress and share in the exciting future at LUMINARY - an evening where every bid brings us one step closer to a cure. Together, let's make a difference!
