

Program of Events

3:00PM Festivities begin. Stroll Railroad and Main for special store promotions, window installations and additional street vendors. Mail your letter to Santa, have your face painted, shop our fabulous boutiques, dine in our exclusive restaurants and greet many "special visitors" while holiday music plays in the background.

3:00-3:45PM Come to the community room at The Mason Library which will be transformed into a snow globe for a "Celebration of Winter Outdoors". Illustrations will be projected on the wall as stories are read.

4:00PM Commence on the steps of Town Hall for a proclamation by the Town Crier of the beginning of our 250th Celebration Year of Great Barrington.

4:15PM Official tree lighting ceremony in the front of Town Hall.

4:30PM Santa is paraded into town by horse drawn carriage to greet children in the Town Hall Lobby. Sit on Santa's lap and tell him your wishes, there will be a small gift for each child. Bring your camera. Sing carols as you wait for Santa!

4:00-7:00PM Free kids crafts located at CATA on the top of Railroad. Make a snow globe, Reindeer food and holiday decorations, Free Face Painting at Martin's Restaurant.

6:00PM The Lucky Five Jazz Band plays at the old fire station

7:00-9:00PM Warm up around the bonfire located behind Town Hall and visit the Gazebo decorated by Iredale Mineral Cosmetics

9:00PM Festivities come to a close.

Support our Food Pantry! Canned goods will be received at Lance Vermuelen Realty, Barnbrook Realty and The COOP Market from 3:00-6:00PM. Guido's Fresh Marketplace stand on Railroad and TP Saddleblanket during stroll hours.

Porta Potties will be available at the top of Castle Street across from the old firehouse station.

Holiday Stroll

2010

DOWNTOWN GREAT BARRINGTON

photograph by Stephen G. Donaldson

- ♦ Carolers
- ♦ Street Vendors
- ♦ Santa Claus
- ♦ Live Performances
- ♦ Horse Drawn Carriage Rides
- ♦ In-Store Promotions & Events
- ♦ Curbside Restaurant Tastings
- ♦ Tree Lighting and Decoration
- ♦ Live Window Performances
- ♦ Kids Crafts & Face Painting
- ♦ 250th Anniversary Kick-Off

Saturday,
December 11th
8 to 9 pm

THIS EVENT IS HOSTED BY THE
SOUTHERN BERKSHIRE
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE