DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO CONTINUE REVOCATION OF SUPERVISED
RELEASE HEARING DATE

Defendant, through counsel, respectfully moves this Court pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161 to continue the January 22, 2026 supervised release revocation hearing because Counsel for Mr. Daniels has a previously scheduled oral argument in Ohio's Tenth District Court of Appeals. A memorandum in support is attached.

Respectfully submitted,

Counsel for Defendant

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

On July 6, 2018, Defendant, Aaron T. Daniels (Daniels), was sentenced to eighty (80) months of incarceration for providing or attempting to provide material support to a designated foreign terrorist organization. (ECF 92, 93, Minute Entry and Judgment.) He was also given a lifetime supervised release requirement. (Id.)

Daniels was released from prison and began supervised release on July 14, 2021. On December 19, 2025 a Petition for Warrant or Summons for Offender Under Supervision and a Supervised Release Violation Report were filed. (ECF 110-1, 110, Supervised Release Violation Report, Petition for warrant or summons.) The petition and report allege current violations of Daniels supervised release. This Court issued a summons and this matter is set for January 22, 2026.

Current counsel represented Daniels at a supervised release violation hearing in 2025 and has accepted the Court's appointment in the instant matter. Unfortunately, counsel has a previously scheduled oral argument in Ohio's Tenth District Court of Appeals on January 22, 2026 (entry attached.)

Also, Daniels requests a continuance to allow him additional time to address the allegations made in the Supervised Release Violation Report. Counsel contacted both the USPO supervising Daniels and the AUSA assigned to this matter and they have no objection to Daniels request.

For all the foregoing reasons, Daniels moves to continue the January 22, 2026 Supervised Release Violation Hearing to a later date.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kort Gatterdam
