News and Notes

The highly anticipated first start of CLE QB Sanders was a major story entering week 12. The headlines I have seen after the Browns victory are positive to glowing reviews. However, CLE beat one of the lowly, if not the worst team, in the NFL. In doing so, the Brown offense only controlled the ball for 23:34 minutes of 60:00 minutes. The first two Browns TD's were from the "Wildcat" with RB Judkins taking the snap. My take, "One game is not a career". If that was the case, QB Will Levis would be enshrined into the Hall of Fame.

LV fires OFF coordinator Chip Kelly, QB Smith again making obscene gestures at fans. NYG fire DEF coordinator Shane Bowen. CIN QB Burrow expected to start, WR Higgins, DE Hendrickson are out. MIN QB McCarthy concussion protocol. DAL QB Prescott passes Tony Romo in career passing yards (Well, Jim, that is a major accomplishment).

The Raiders are 2-10 and it's amazing they won even one game. The NYG are 2-10 and amazing they aren't 5-5. PHI again played a thirty minute game, are they endanger of DAL making the NFC East competitive? Most divisions are competitive and if the season ended today DET, KC and PIT would all be out of the playoffs. The leading Super Bowl candidates would be a LAR-NE matchup again. But the season is far from over.
