Gone Out Before Thee

Lyrics and Composition by Robert LeBaron, Shout For Joy Music

Intro
(Just sitting under my palm tree.)
(Listen up, Barak.)

Verse 1
Twenty years of hiding, yeah, it's been a while
The enemy is acting like they own the aisle.
Barak's looking at me, says he's feeling scared
Wants me to go with him, make sure we're prepared.
I said, "I'll go with you, I don't mind the ride...
But heaven's already on our side."

Pre-Chorus
Why are you shaking? Why do you stall?
Haven't you heard the Almighty's call?
Look at the mountain, look at the sky...
We got the angels fighting close by.
(So let's go.)

Chorus
Is not the Lord gone out before thee?
Why are you stressing over iron and steel?
Is not the Lord gone out before thee?
He's making a path, yeah, the victory's real.
Step up, breathe out, let the fear just fade
We're walking right into the promise He made!
Yeah, the Lord's gone out before thee!

Verse 2
Marching up the mountain, ten thousand strong
Singing the notes to a victory song.
The clouds are rolling in, washing out the track
Even the stars are fighting back.
(So pretty.)
When heaven says move, you don't hesitate
You just walk right through the open gate.

Pre-Chorus

Chorus

Bridge
(He clears the way.)
He turns the darkest night into the day.
(He clears the way.)
So when He calls you to the front of the line...
Just step right up and let your faith shine.
(Here we go.)

Chorus

Outro
(He's gone before you.)
So don't even worry about it.
