UPDATE: Response to Concerns Surrounding Social Media Post

In response to concerns surrounding a recent social media post regarding missing persons in Dobbs Ferry, Jorge Barahona, reported as a missing person on 09/19/2025, after absconding from the Children's Village Facility in Dobbs Ferry, has been safely located by Police within the confines of the 103rd Precinct of the NYPD and is now back in the care of The Children's Village.

Juvenile Kenneth McRae, a past resident of The Children's Village, was reported to police missing from the facility on 07/15/2025. Kenneth also left the facility voluntarily. Officers have since been in contact with the child's parent who confirms that he is safe and living with the family.

The Dobbs Ferry Police Department thanks the community for their concern in this matter.
