

How to think about co-creation in community

1. Spot an idea with potential

1.1. Can you elevate it?

1.1.1. Quote, feature and reference it

1.1.2. Share through any means possible

1.1.3. Connect the ideas to people

1.2. How can you dig deeper?

1.2.1. Ask questions

1.2.2. What else has succeeded or failed?

1.2.3. Seek understanding

1.2.4. Share your worldview

1.2.5. Create a gathering to explore with more depth

1.2.6. Understand goals and desired outcomes

1.2.7. Suggest or brainstorm the potential next actions that could be taken

1.3. How can you create connections?

1.3.1. Create some introductions

1.3.2. Show something related that already exists

1.3.3. Share and encourage others to share what they know

1.4. How can you turn it into a project?

1.4.1. Highlight the potential

1.4.2. Be a supporter or a co-creator

1.4.3. Give more than you take

1.4.4. Check your capacity for encouragement, support or collaboration

1.4.5. Offer resources and elevation

1.4.6. Share and celebrate the successes

1.4.7. Be transparent

1.4.8. Be fair

2. Talk about what you care for

2.1. Be generous with what you share

2.2. Give and ask for help

2.3. Refine thinking through conversations

2.4. Seek other perspectives and worldviews

- 2.5. Seek collaboration
- 2.6. Create experiments
- 2.7. Give credit
- 2.8. Share the success

3. ☐ Made with love in Rosieland

4. What can co-creation become?

- 4.1. Events
- 4.2. Projects
- 4.3. Articles
- 4.4. Events
- 4.5. Job opportunities
- 4.6. Consultancy
- 4.7. Experience & Credibility
- 4.8. A business opportunity
- 4.9. An industry trend
- 4.10. A community challenge
- 4.11. Solve problems for members

5. Seen a member struggling?

- 5.1. Dig deeper
 - 5.1.1. Ask questions
 - 5.1.2. How can you help?
 - 5.1.3. What's the problem?
 - 5.1.4. What guidance would be helpful?
 - 5.1.5. Be compassionate
- 5.2. Offer
 - 5.2.1. Time
 - 5.2.2. Money
 - 5.2.3. Resources
 - 5.2.4. Attention
 - 5.2.5. Elevation
 - 5.2.6. Validation
 - 5.2.7. Connection
 - 5.2.8. Conversations

5.2.9. Experience

5.2.10. Empathy

5.2.11. Stories